LEONARD FAMILY FOUNDATION

TEACHER EDUCATION IN SCIENCE AND MATH SCHOLARSHIP

The Graduate School of Education is pleased to announce that the John and Elizabeth Leonard Family Foundation is sponsoring three (3) $5000 scholarships for UCR College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences (CNAS) graduates who are planning on becoming science or math teachers. The Leonard Family Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of others by promoting medical research and education, by supporting the health and welfare of the disadvantaged, and by promoting environmental awareness.

Scholarships are awarded for the 2016-2017 school year to applicants who are admitted to the UCR Teacher Education Program in the Graduate School of Education. To receive the award, recipients must be accepted to one of the following: 1) M.Ed. in General Education with Teaching Emphasis and Single-Subject teaching credential program in Mathematics, or 2) M.Ed. in General Education with Teaching Emphasis and Single Subject teaching credential program in Science. Award recipients meet the members of the Leonard family at a special luncheon hosted by Thomas Smith, Dean of UCR’s Graduate School of Education.
